What's Next

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Opioid Crisis: The Civil Division has partnered with Attorneys General from several states across the U.S. in negotiation a settlement with several pharmaceutical companies including Purdue Pharma LP, the maker of OxyContin
- Tobacco Master Settlement: We are in discussion with major tobacco companies to settle several years of disputed payments under the Master Settlement Agreement
- Water Contamination: We have engaged and are working with specialized outside counsel to pursue litigation against manufacturers of perfluorooctanoic acid (PFOA) and perfluorooctanesulfonic acid (PFOS), chemicals found in non-stick cookware, fabric coatings, and firefighting foam, which have made their way into our groundwater and put the public at risk
- Generic Drugs: The Civil Division recently joined 52 other states and territories bringing an action in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut against Teva Pharmaceuticals and 21 other generic drug manufacturers for antitrust and consumer protection act violations

KEY INITIATIVES FOR 2020:

- Continue to provide legal advice and guidance to the Executive Branch, Departments and Agencies and to represent the Commonwealth in the trial court and on matters currently on appeal
- Continue to support all law enforcement though meeting and training by means of academy or in service
- Focus on illegal business practices that hurt our consumers and other businesses; implement consumer awareness programs and investigate consumer complaints.
- Continue to foster a non-partisan position on all matters brought to our attention
- Continue to promote and ensure an open and transparent government
- Continue to improve and strengthen the Criminal Code
- Continue to work on new procurement regulations for the government and provide training to agencies
- Continue to explore solutions to mental health issues in the criminal justice system
- Continue to collaborate with DPS and DYS to address juvenile delinquency issues in the Commonwealth
